

IDENTIFICATION FORM

Directions for use

Note : Each information on this identification form should be carefully filled out.
In case of difficulties, ask assistance to a professional motor mechanic or dealer car.

(1) CLAIMANT :

Fill in this case main information about you.

Write specially your phone number where you can be called during office hours.

(2) VEHICLE :

To fill in this paragraph, check the information's on the car itself and on the logbook and on the certificate of registration.

(3) MANUFACTURER PLATE :

Copy, exactly in the same order all the information's as it is marked on the manufacturer plate. This plate is generally fixed in the engine compartment or on the upright of the right door or in the boot.

The instructions manual indicates where this plate is.

The first line " n° de réception CE" has to be completed only if a CE number is mentioned.

(4) BODY :

Write "CI" for a personal car, "Break" for an estate car or "Cabriolet" for a convertible car.

A "hayon arrière" is a boot door which, in opening position, allows the access to the car interior.

Examples : a RENAULT CLIO or a PEUGEOT 106 : YES ; a MERCEDES C series : NO

(5) ENGINE :

You can find these informations in the instructions manual.

ES for benzine, GO for diesel engine, Gaz for GPL or Natural Gas – EL for electrical vehicle – else other (and you precise this in the case 7)

(6) TRANSMISSION :

The gears may be mechanical "mécanique" (the car has 3 pedals) or automatic "automatique" (the car has 2 pedals).

Write "AV" if the transmission is made at the front wheels, "AR" at the back wheels or "4X4" for a four wheels drive

(7) SPECIAL EQUIPMENTS :

Indicate for example if the car has been fitted out as a motor home, included installations for handicapped, ...

You must date and sign this form.

If it is necessary, more we can request more information.

TAKE CARE

Abstract from French penal code "Article 441 – 6". If you mentioned wrong information to obtain an official form you may be condemned to two years of jail and to be fined 30 000 euros.